Hedged U.S. Equity Opportunities Fund

A core equity solution for delivering alpha and minimizing volatility, the Hedged U.S. Equity Opportunities Fund combines a highly active, risk-balanced equity portfolio with a hedging overlay.

The First Investors Hedged U.S. Equity Opportunities Fund combines an active, risk-balanced equity portfolio designed to generate positive returns, with a hedging strategy to lessen volatility from unwanted market exposures and to protect against potential market drawdowns. The investment management team of the subadviser, Wellington Management, has a long history of managing client assets through a number of investment capabilities across the globe. The Hedged U.S. Equity Opportunities portfolio team has access to the vast resources of Wellington’s broad equity investments along with hedging expertise that the firm has developed over time.

Exhibit 1: Multi factor-based equity portfolio

The Fund offers a broadly diversified, risk-balanced equity portfolio (see Exhibit 1) that targets alpha generation and risk diversification through a factor-based approach, while balancing multiple factors across capitalizations, quality, value and growth.

Exhibit 2: Portfolio construction process

The Fund incorporates a complimentary hedging overlay strategy (see Exhibit 2) that acts as a dual-functioning protection feature mitigating the downside market risk (or beta) and larger market drawdowns. The approach combines index futures for the beta component with continuous option hedging for extreme downturns.
A blended return profile
The hedging capabilities of the Fund are designed to lower volatility of the active factor-based portfolio to produce a risk-return profile that is lower than an equity-only portfolio and more similar to a 70% multi-cap equity/30% U.S. Treasury bill blended portfolio (see Exhibit 3).
